Bad Stomach Makes Bad Blood.

You can not make sweet butter in a foul, unclean churn. The stomach serves as a churn in which to agitate, work up and disintegrate our food as it is being digested. If it be weak, sluggish and foul the result will be a poor, impure blood. The ingredients of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery are just such as best serve to correct and cure all such derangements. It is made up without a drop of alcohol in its composition; chemically pure, triple-refined glycerine being used instead of the commonly employed alcohol. Now the glycerine is of itself a valuable medicine. Instead of a deleterious agent like alcohol, especially in the cure of weak stomach, dyspepsia and the various forms of indigestion. Prof. Finley Ellingwood, M. D., of Bennett Medical College, Chicago, says of it:

"In dyspepsia it serves an excellent purpose. It is the best of all stomachic agents. It is a most efficient preparation. Glycerine will relieve many cases of dyspepsia and excessive gastric acidity. It is useful in chronic intestinal dyspepsia, especially the flatulent variety, and in certain forms of chronic constipation, stimulating the secretory and excretory functions of the intestinal glands."

When combined, in just the right proportions, with Golden Seal root, Stone root, Black Cherry bark, Queen's root, Blood-root and Mandrake root, or the extracts of these, as in Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, there can be no doubt of its great efficacy in the cure of all stomach, liver and intestinal disorders and derangements. These several ingredients have the strongest endorsement in all such such eminent medical leaders as:

Prof. E. Bartholow, M. D., of Jefferson Medical College, Chicago; Prof. H. A. Hare, M. D., of Medical Department, University of Pa.; Prof. Laurence Johnson, M. D., of Medical Department, University of New York; Prof. J. M. Allen, M. D., of Medical Department, University of Chicago; Prof. J. M. Scudder, M. D., and Prof. John King, M. D., Authors of the American Dispensary, and scores of others among the leading medical men of our land.

Who can doubt the curative virtues of a medicine the ingredients of which have such a professional endorsement?

Constipation cured by Doctor Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. One or two a dose.

A FACT PROVEN.

Should Convince Even the Most Skeptical of Its Truth.

If there is the slightest doubt in the minds of any that Dandruff germs do not exist, their belief is compelled by the fact that a rabbit inoculated with the germs became bald in six weeks of time. It must be apparent to any person therefore that the only prevention of baldness is the destruction of the germ—which act is successfully accomplished in one hundred per cent. of cases by the application of Newbrow's Herpicide.

Dandruff is caused by the same germ which causes baldness and can be prevented with the same remedy—Newbrow's Herpicide.

No substitute. "Destroy the cause you remove the effect."

Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

Strike Said to be Inevitable.

That the convention will declare a strike throughout the hard-coal fields was the opinion in Scranton, Pa., last night of everyone in touch with the situation. It seems that there is no way out of a strike unless the mine-workers back down, and all of the delegates who are pouring into town are very far from favoring anything closely approaching a backdown. Yesterday afternoon Mitchell met with the members of the joint scale committee and presented for their consideration a copy of the committee report which he had been preparing for some days. The meeting was largely formal, though it lasted for three hours. The report was approved in its entirety. The members of the joint scale committee were outspoken last night in favoring a strike. They say that there is no other course left open to the organization now that the operators have given their ultimatum. They report a marked change of sentiment throughout the entire region during the past few days, and particularly since the clash between the State constabulary and the mine-workers at Mount Carmel on Monday. Strike talk is in the air on all sides.

Anticipating the convention of miners which will be held at Scranton, Pa., today, the anthracite coal operators have issued a statement outlining their view of the negotiations in the anthracite field up to date. The object of the statement, according to its introductory paragraph, is "to prevent misunderstanding of the situation which has led to the convention of miners at Scranton." It declares that in the summer of 1905 the leaders of the United Mine-workers found their organization rapidly dwindling; that having obtained a large wage increase as a result of the arbitration award of the commission appointed by President Roosevelt in 1902, the men apparently saw no reason to continue to pay union dues. It adds that on June 1 last the total union membership was 38,810 out of some 170,000 employees. President Mitchell's tour of the districts, which, the statement says, resulted in increasing the union membership to 80,487, is reviewed, and portions of some of the miners' leader's addresses are quoted. "Backed by the result of this campaign," the statement continues, "and dis-regarding the fact that the anthracite commission had settled the fundamental principles which should govern the relations between the operators and their employees, the miners' representatives came forward on March 1st with an extraordinary list of new demands. The operators took the position which they have consistently maintained since, that on all questions which had been definitely settled by the coal commission its findings should be continued." Then, the statement declares, there began the playing of one industry against another. Mr. Mitchell went to Indianapolis and with the suggestion that a strike might be called in the anthracite fields demanded a large wage increase from the bituminous operators. The statement concludes: "Failing with the bituminous operators Mr. Mitchell now made a further effort to obtain his wants from the anthracite operators. His last demand was for a limited wage increase. This is precisely the question which the operators proposed to arbitrate. But the fear that a fair arbitration might not repay the men the union dues which they were so urgently impressed to pay, in order to 'get more,' apparently prevents arbitration. The situation now before the people is a most serious one. Every claim of the miners was duly considered by the coal commission appointed by President Roosevelt. The position of the operators in 1906 is precisely in accord with the letter and spirit of the commission's findings. That commission was universally recognized as able and impartial. President Roosevelt, in appointing its members, specifically instructed them to 'endeavor to establish the relations between the employers and the wage-workers in the anthracite fields on a just and permanent basis.' The operators accept the commission's decision as having permanent effect, except in so far as subsequent events have possibly modified actual conditions. These possibilities the operators agreed to submit to the same impartial tribunal."

Governor Pennypacker, of Pennsylvania, yesterday issued a proclamation in reference to the industrial disturbances in Pennsylvania, in which he calls upon all citizens to assist in the maintenance of the law and declares that violence will not be tolerated. The governor, in his proclamation, calls upon "all citizens by their conduct, example and utterances, whether printed or verbal, to assist in the maintenance of the law."

Continuing, the proclamation says: "Times of commotion furnish the test of capacity of the people for self-government. Every man is entitled to labor and get for his labor the highest compensation he can lawfully secure. There is no law to compel him to labor unless he so chooses, and he may cease to labor whenever he considers it to be to his interest so to cease. The laboring man, out of whose efforts wealth arises, has the sympathy of all disinterested people in his lawful struggles to secure a larger proportion of the profit which results from his labor. What he earns belongs to him and if he invests his earnings the law protects his property just as the rights of property of all men must be protected. He has no right to interfere with another man who may want to labor. 'Violence has no place among us and will not be tolerated. Let all men in quiet and soberness keep the peace and attend to their affairs with the knowledge that it is the purpose of the commonwealth to see that the principles herein outlined are enforced.'

STOP, WOMAN!

AND CONSIDER THE ALL-IMPORTANT FACT

That in addressing Mrs. Pinkham you are confiding your private life to a woman—a woman whose experience with women's diseases covers a great many years. Mrs. Pinkham is the daughter-in-law of Lydia E. Pinkham, and for many years under her direction, and since her decease, she has been advising sick women free of charge.

Many women suffer in silence and drift along from bad to worse, knowing full well that they ought to have immediate assistance, but a natural modesty impedes them to shrink from exposing themselves to the questions and probable examinations of even their family physician. It is unnecessary. Without money or price you can consult a woman whose knowledge from actual experience is great.

Mrs. Pinkham's Standing Invitation.

Women suffering from any form of female weakness are invited to promptly communicate with Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. All letters are received, opened, read and answered by women only. A woman can freely talk of her private illness to a woman; thus has been established the eternal confidence between Mrs. Pinkham and the women of America which has never been broken. Out of the vast volume of experience which she has to draw from, it is more than possible that she has gained the very knowledge that will help your case. She asks nothing in return except your good-will, and her advice has relieved thousands. Surely any woman, rich or poor, is very foolish if she does not take advantage of this generous offer of assistance.

If you are ill, don't hesitate to get a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at once, and write Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., for special advice.

When a medicine has been successful in restoring to health so many women, you cannot well fail, without trying it, "I do not believe it will help me."

A good complexion is impossible with the stomach out of order. If you suffer people would pay more attention to their stomachs and less to the skin on their faces, they would have better complexion. KODOL FOR DYSPEPSIA will digest what you eat and put your stomach back right in shape to do its own work. Kodol relieves palpitation of the heart, flatulence, sour stomach, heart burn, etc. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co., 401 King St.

A Year of Blood.

The year 1903 will long be remembered in the home of F. N. Tackett, of Alliance, Ky., as a year of blood; which flowed so copiously from Mr. Tackett's lungs that death seemed very near. He writes: "Severe bleeding from the lungs and a frightful cough had brought me at death's door, when I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, with the astonishing result that after taking four bottles I was completely restored and as time has proven permanent cure." Guaranteed for Sore Lungs, Coughs and Colds, at E. E. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

For a Weak Digestion.

No medicine can replace food but Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets will help you to digest your food. It is not the quantity of food taken that gives strength and vigor to the system, but the amount digested and assimilated. If troubled with a weak digestion, don't fail to give these Tablets a trial. Thousands have been benefited by their use. They only cost a quarter. For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.
